

HERITAGE

IN Unusual PLACES

Have you ever experienced Heritage in Unusual Places?

While Annapolis Royal has a reputation as a heritage-minded town, there are still some stories that are not told on a regular basis. This festival is your chance to meet some of the craftspeople, storytellers and other caretakers of our community's unusual history. Pay special attention for Wilfrid Cartier who refers to himself an "Uncle of Confederation". He will be making a number of spontaneous appearances through the weekend.

Friday, June 10

2:30pm: Reverse Strip Tease (Heritage Style), Fort Anne National Historic Site *

Learn the many steps were needed to get dressed in historic clothing.

6:00pm - 8:00pm: Annapolis Royal Survives the Fires of the Centuries Tour

A leisurely 2 hour stroll with many stops, visual aids and stories of the fires, buildings and historic personalities of Annapolis Royal. Convene at the parking lot of the Annapolis Royal Regional Academy (Upper St. George St.) at 6:00pm, ending at the Fire Hall at the Causeway at 8:00pm with return transportation available, if requested. To be offered in any weather conditions. Cost $7.00

8:00pm: Book Launch & Exhibit Viewing - "Last Words" by Eugene Hamm, O'Dell House Museum

The official launch of "Last Words" the latest book of poetry by the late poet Eugene L. Hamm. This is also an opportunity to view an extension of the exhibit "From a Humble Block of Wood" featuring the carvings of this versatile artist.

Saturday, June 11

9:00am - 12:00pm: Annapolis Royal Farmers' and Traders' Market

9:00am - 5:00pm: From a Humble Block of Wood Exhibit, O'Dell House Museum

For a very limited time this exhibit featuring the wood carvings of the late Eugene Hamm has been increased to show the full scope of this impressive collection.

9:30am - 4:00pm: Get a Handle on it!, Sinclair Inn Museum

Heritage Interpreter Ken Maher will be demonstrating the traditional techniques of making wooden handles using a shaving horse and a draw knife.

9:30am - 3:00pm: Rug Hooking Demonstration, O'Dell House Museum

Saturday, June 11 cont'd.

10:00am - 11:00am: Little Rays Reptile Zoo Presentation, Champlain Elementary School

Our wildlife educators will take you on a trip around the world, showing animals from around the globe and even those found right in our own backyards. Expect to see 8-10 animals including snakes, lizards, turtles, tortoises, amphibians, bugs and a crocodilian. Free admission

11:00am: Guided Tour, Historic Gardens

Join us for an informative excursion around one of Canada's finest gardens.

11:00am - 12:00pm: Games in the Gymnasium, Champlain Elementary School

11:00am - 1:00pm: BBQ in the Court Yard, Champlain Elementary School

10:00am - 1:00pm: Face Painting, Balloon Animals, Pie in the Face, Sucker Pull, Rug Hooking Demonstration, Champlain Elementary School

1:00pm - 4:30pm: Wigwam Program, Port Royal Habitation

Drumming, songs, games and legends in the wigwam at Port-Royal NHS

2:00pm: Travelling the Granville Shore Tour

A relaxed 3 hour excursion including a drive and short hikes exploring how people have travelled the Annapolis Basin and Granville Shore over the past 400 years. Convene at the parking lot of the Granville Ferry Community Hall with the tour ending at the Port Royal Habitation (with return transportation to Granville Ferry Hall) 4:30pm. To be offered in all weather conditions. Cost $7.00

2:00pm - 4:00pm: Archaeological Adventure (Ask the Archaeologist), Melanson Settlement National Historic Site

*Open toe footwear is not appropriate for this location.

6:00pm - 8:00pm: Pre-Prom Night Pictures, Historic Gardens *

Before the Prom Night in Annapolis Royal the students gather at the Historic Gardens to have their pictures taken. This event has become an annual gathering for the citizens of the town who come to watch our own version of a red carpet ceremony.

8:00pm: Lennie Gallant Concert, King's Theatre

This Prolific songwriter/performer has released 7 albums, which have won him a host of awards and nominations from both the JUNOS and the East Coast Music Awards. $20.00 Advance, $22.00 Door, $18.00 King's Theatre Members, $5.00 Youth. 532-7704

Sunday, June 12

All Day: Heritage Interpretive Panels, Historic Gardens *

Check out the new interpretive panels at the Historic Gardens, illustrating our rich horticultural heritage.

9:00am - 5:00pm: From a Humble Block of Wood Exhibit, O'Dell House Museum

For a very limited time this exhibit featuring the wood carvings of the late Eugene Hamm has been increased to show the full scope of this impressive collection.

12:00pm - 3:00pm: Rug Hooking Demonstration, O'Dell House Museum

11:00am: Guided Tour, Historic Gardens *

Join us for an informative excursion around one of Canada's finest gardens.

Anytime Between 11:00am - 5:00pm: Family Geo Quest, Historic Gardens *

Explore the Historic Gardens with a GPS unit to discover more about our horticultural heritage. GPS units are available.

1:00pm: Experiencing the Life of the Bay of Fundy Tour

A 2½ hour hike with many opportunities for bringing back photos and treasures. Convene at the parking lot of R & R Fisheries at Parker's Cove, on Sunday at 1:00 pm; transportation to be provided to Hillsburne; and hiking back to Parker's Cove; arrival (to be cancelled if we have wet weather as shoreline is then slippery and dangerous). This excursion requires serious hiking boots, walking stick, and good fitness. Cost $7.00

1:00pm - 2:00pm: Open House, Annapolis Royal Boat Haul-up

Located beside the Wharf. Many of the repair techniques used at the Haul-up are the same as those used during the Golden age of Sail when Annapolis Royal was an international port. Learn about how this facility keeps the wooden boats in our local scallop fleet afloat.

2:00pm - 3:00pm: Open House, Jon Gray Bespoke Handmade Shoes

43 School Street. In the heart of Annapolis Royal is a facility making top quality handmade shoes using traditional materials and techniques. Meet Jon Gray and learn about his latest projects.

2:00pm - 4:00pm: Open House, North Hills Museum

5065 Granville Road. Visit the museum, preview our summer schedule for workshops and events, have a beverage, and sample our delicious home baked treats.

2:00pm - 4:00pm: Acadian House Bake Oven, Historic Gardens *

Step back in time at la Maison acadienne, and try your hand at baking treats in the bake oven.

8:00pm: Madama Butterfly by Giacomo Puccini, King's Theatre

$18.00 Advance, $20.00 Door, $16.00 King's Theatre Members, $5.00 Youth. 532-7704

9:30pm: Candlelight Graveyard Tour, Fort Anne National Historic Site

Enjoy a fun-filled Candlelight Graveyard Tour through one of the oldest English graveyards in Canada. Wear comfortable walking shoes, and don't forget to bring your sense of adventure.

Monday, June 13

7:30 pm: Complications & Contradictions - The Life & Times of Judge Thomas Chandler Haliburton (1796 – 1865)

St. Luke's Anglican Church Hall. Join Dr. Henry Roper, Past President of the Royal Nova Scotia Historical Society, for a colourful program about this famous author, judge, politician and lawyer who practiced who in Annapolis Royal.

*Regular site admission fees are applicable.

For more information please contact
Annapolis Heritage Society
historic@ns.aliantzinc.ca
902-532-7754

THE HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION
OF ANNAPOLIS ROYAL

